Comprehensive Announces Addition of New Line of HDMI Cables with Ethernet!

Comprehensive has always remained a step ahead in ensuring that its connectivity products are available to answer the call of continuous advancements in technology.

In keeping with that standard, Comprehensive now offers a new line of HDMI Cables with Ethernet capability. These cables surpass the ability of current source and display technology and are ready for the ever increasing demand of Ethernet capability in the home and office.

Comprehensive HDMI with Ethernet cables are available in three performance levels; Standard Series (Good) for everyday applications, HR Pro Series (Better) with a larger gauge for more demanding professional applications and the XHD Series (Best) which features extra large gauges and oxygen free copper center conductors for the ultimate in durability and performance.

All Comprehensive HDMI cables with Ethernet support the latest HDMI technology including 10.2 Gbps High Speed, Deep Color, 3-D capability, 4K resolution support, are RoHS and ATC Certified and are backed by Comprehensive's Lifetime Warranty.
